

To whom it may concern

I am pleased to express my support for the activities to promote the legacy of Sir Joseph Rotblat undertaken by Anna Marczak, Joanna Roszak and Tomasz Kostrzewa.

Sir Joseph Rotblat was the deserving recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize in 1995. Having had the privilege to meet and work with him, I feel it is important to carry forward his vision. His tireless campaign to reduce and eliminate the threat of nuclear annihilation must not be forgotten.

Having met Anna and Tomasz, I trust that their experience and commitment will be a considerable asset in activities aimed to promote the legacy of Sir Joseph Rotblat, both in his home country of Poland and around the world.
